A Note from the Office

This past Sunday, I shared the story about my last conversation with my sister in 2017 before she passed away. Our final goodbye was truly special to me; those words will stick with me for life. In many ways, they are exactly what Christians should say to each other. In many ways, they are grounded in the truth and promises of Christ.

As I turned to leave her room and the hospice house in Omaha, Nebraska, I said to her, "Well, sis, I guess it's time for me to go," to which she responded in her weakened state, "Yeah, I guess so." Then I said the first thing I could think of, "I will see ya when I see ya..." She responded, "Yup, I will see ya when I see ya."

As I said, this exchange is forever etched in my memory but also stand as a testimony of faith. I mean that this is not goodbye, but I will see you at some point in time. I don't know when, but I know there will be a day when we see each other again. These are the promises we live by in faith.

Conny and I have truly enjoyed our time here in Harrison. While we all know there is still much work to be done, I know that as long as you all stay united in your love for Christ, there are no limits to what you all can accomplish together. So instead of goodbye, I will say see ya, when I see ya!

Blessings to all,

Pastor Allen and Conny Crum

A FATHER IS

Neither an anchor to hold us back nor a sail to take us there but a guiding light whose love shows us the way.

Happy Father's Day!

A good father is one of the most unsung, unpraised, unnoticed, and yet one of the most valuable assets in the world.
